

Milena Pagán SB '11 was born in Caguas, Puerto Rico and moved to Cambridge at 17 to study Chemical Engineering at MIT. She graduated with the class of 2011 and started a corporate job in Providence in 2013 that ultimately wasn't a good fit. She started Rebelle Artisan Bagels in 2017 on Providence's East Side with the help of successful Kickstarter Campaign. In 2020 she opened Little Sister, and was recognized by EY as Entrepreneur of the year. She was a James Beard Award semifinalist for Best Chef Northeast in 2023. Milena calls her years at MIT "the most challenging and rewarding four years of my life."

UNDERGRADUATE SEMINAR SERIES

Chemical Engineering

TUESDAY,
APRIL 2ND
NOON
66-360

LUNCH WILL BE SERVED FROM MILENA'S RESTAURANT REBELLE
ARTISAN BAGELS! PLEASE
RSVP BY 3/28

MILENA PAGÁN SB '11

